FRANCIS OF ASSISI PRAYER FOR PEACE

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace:
where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy.

A MESSAGE FROM CARDINAL TOBIN

My dear sisters and brothers in Christ,

With this newsletter, I would like to begin a series of reflections inspired by the Instrumentum Laboris, the “working document” for the first session of the 16th Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops (October 4-29, 2023).

According to Cardinal Mario Grech, Secretary General of the General Secretariat of the Synod, speaking last month at the press conference presenting the Instrumentum Laboris, The Instrumentum Laboris is not a document of the Holy See, but of the whole Church. It is not a document written at a desk. It is a document in which all are co-authors, each for the part he or she is called to play in the Church, in docility to the Spirit.

We will not find in the text of the Instrumentum Laboris a theoretical systematic explanation of synodality, but the fruit of a Church experience, of a journey in which we have all learnt more by walking together and questioning ourselves on the meaning of this experience.

Cardinal Grech assures us that this Instrumentum Laboris is a text in which no one’s voice is missing. “It is the voice of the Holy People of God; of the Pastors, who have ensured ecclesial discernment with their participation; of the Pope, who has always accompanied us, supported us, encouraged us to move forward,” Cardinal Grech says.

The Instrumentum Laboris is also an opportunity for all of us—the entire People of God—to continue the synodal journey that we have begun together, and it as an opportunity to involve those who have not been engaged so far. Our Holy Father Pope Francis eagerly desires that all of us, no matter who we are or what our situation in life is, participate in this synodal journey—through our prayer, attentive listening, respectful dialogue (especially with those who disagree with us), and our prayerful discernment of God’s will for us.

As I wrote recently in this newsletter (Vol. 4 No. 20, June 9, 2023), Synodality begins with attentive listening and respectful dialogue, but its ultimate goal is encounter, the kind of personal engagement that leads to mutual understanding, trust and the ability to join hands as sisters and brothers who are members of the one family of God. Ultimately, synodality should lead us to a face-to-face encounter with our Lord Jesus Christ precisely because we recognize him in the faces of everyone we meet—those who are closest to us as well as strangers, even enemies.

The Instrumentum Laboris is designed to facilitate our encounter with one another and with our Redeemer. “Mutual understanding and trust” can never occur when warring factions merely shout at one another from behind barricades of ideology and defensiveness. We must learn to treat each other with the dignity and respect that is our due as human beings made in the image and likeness of our Creator.

The selection below from the Instrumentum Laboris that is provide below is intended merely to “whet your appetite” for the complete working document. (See link below.) I urge you to read it prayerfully and to reflect on the issues discussed. In the next several newsletters over the course of this summer, I will offer some of my own reflections. I invite you to do the same.

As we continue our synodal journey, let’s pray that the Holy Spirit will accompany us and show us the way.

Sincerely yours in Christ the Redeemer,

Cardinal Joseph W. Tobin, C.Ss.R.
Archbishop of Newark

WHO IS EL SHADDAI?

The Lord God Almighty—Who is More Than Enough!

AND WHAT IS EL SHADDAI PRAYER GROUP?

Today many people wonder about the El Shaddai DWXI Prayer Partners Fellowship International. They ask, "What is the El Shaddai DWXI-PPFI all about?" "Why do hundreds of thousands and even millions of people flock to its fellowships, singing and dancing in praise of God for hours, despite the heavy rains or the scorching heat of the sun—whenever and wherever its Mass and Healing Rallies are held?" Observers call it a phenomenon, but the members and followers of the Foundation call it "God's amazing grace at work" (John 5:17), for it is indeed a manifestation of God at work—performing miracles, particularly among the people who heed the Word of God, healing the sick, and transforming the lives of those who repent and turn away from their wicked ways! The Foundation has undoubtedly become a religious wonder and a "miracle of faith" in the Philippines, as well as in other parts of the world.

Today, in Manila alone, the weekly attendance has reached to half a million, more or less. The Movement has now gained the support of the Catholic bishops and priests in other countries all over the world where the El Shaddai DWXI-PPFI Centers are established.

Now is your chance to experience the Lord Jesus Christ in a very special way. El Shaddai Prayer Group is coming to St. Anthony of Padua in September. Mark your calendar for Saturday, September 23 and be sure to attend and experience for yourself the amazing grace and blessings the Lord has in store for you.

Yes, on Saturday, September 23rd, our Parish will host the opening of our very own El Shaddai Prayer Group beginning at 9 AM sharp in Ferraro Hall. Be sure to attend—you will be blessed.

NEXT SUNDAY'S 2ND COLLECTION

Next weekend, July 29 & 30, the ushers will come around for the second collection. This weekend's collection is for the Air Conditioning. If you do not have your Envelopes, kindly put in your allotted contribution for this purpose.

Each month we publish our Financial Report and as you are aware according to our last report we continue to carry a deficit. Hopefully this new system will help us achieve a balanced book.

Thank you for your continued sacrificial support as we struggle to keep our Parish alive and thriving financially.

ONLINE GIVING

Supporting our summer ministries and mission is only a click away. We offer convenient online giving, so you never have to worry about leaving your cash or checkbook at home. You can make a one-time contribution or set up recurring gifts – a great option for parishioners who will be traveling during the summer months. Get started by visiting our online donation page
