REST IN THE PEACE OF CHRIST

CROCEFISSA "FRANCES" SARCONIA

MESSAGE OF HIS HOLINESS POPE FRANCIS FOR WORLD MISSION DAY 2023 (an excerpt)

Hearts on fire, feet on the move (cf. Lk 24:13-35)

Dear brothers and sisters!

For this year's World Mission Sunday, I have chosen a theme inspired by the story of the disciples on the way to Emmaus, in the Gospel of Luke (cf. 24:13-35): "Hearts on fire, feet on the move". Those two disciples were confused and dismayed, but their encounter with Christ in the word and in the breaking of the bread sparked in them the enthusiastic desire to set out again towards Jerusalem and proclaim that the Lord had truly risen. In the Gospel account, we perceive this change in the disciples through a few revealing images: their hearts burned within them as they heard the Scriptures explained by Jesus, their eyes were opened as they recognized him and, ultimately, their feet set out on the way. By meditating on these three images, which reflect the journey of all missionary disciples, we can renew our zeal for evangelization in today's world.

1. Our hearts burned within us "when he explained the Scriptures to us". In missionary activity, the word of God illumines and transforms hearts.

After listening to the two disciples on the road to Emmaus, the risen Jesus, "beginning with Moses and all the prophets, explained to them what was said in all the Scriptures concerning himself" (Lk 24:27). The hearts of the disciples thrilled, as they later confided to each other: "Were not our hearts burning within us while he spoke to us on the way and opened the Scriptures to us?" (v. 32). Jesus is himself the living Word, who alone can make our hearts burn within us, as he enlightens and transforms them.

So let us always be willing to let ourselves be accompanied by the Risen Lord as he explains to us the meaning of the Scriptures. May he make our hearts burn within us; may he enlighten and transform us, so that we can proclaim his mystery of salvation to the world with the power and wisdom that come from his Spirit.

2. Our eyes were "opened and recognized him" in the breaking of the bread. Jesus in the Eucharist is the source and summit of the mission.

Here it should be remembered that breaking our material bread with the hungry in the name of Christ is already a work of Christian mission. How much more so is the breaking of the Eucharistic bread, which is Christ himself, a work of mission par excellence, since the Eucharist is the source and summit of the life and mission of the Church.

In order to bear fruit we must remain united to Jesus (cf. Jn 15:4-9). This union is achieved through daily prayer, particularly in Eucharistic adoration, as we remain in silence in the presence of the Lord, who remains with us in the Blessed Sacrament. By lovingly cultivating this communion with Christ, the missionary disciple can become a mystic in action. May our hearts always yearn for the company of Jesus, echoing the ardent plea of the two disciples of Emmaus, especially in the evening hours: "Stay with us, Lord!" (cf. Lk 24:29).

3. Our feet set out on the way, with the joy of telling others about the Risen Christ. The eternal youth of a Church that is always going forth.

The image of "feet setting out" reminds us once more of the perennial validity of the missio ad gentes, the mission entrusted to the Church by the risen Lord to evangelize all individuals and peoples, even to the ends of the earth. Today more than ever, our human family, wounded by so many situations of injustice, so many divisions and wars, is in need of the Good News of peace and salvation in Christ. I take this opportunity to reiterate that "everyone has the right to receive the Gospel. Christians have the duty to announce it without excluding anyone, not as one who imposes a new obligation, but as one who shares a joy, signals a beautiful horizon, offers a desirable banquet" (Evangelii Gaudium, 14). Missionary conversion remains the principal goal that we must set for ourselves as individuals and as a community, because "missionary outreach is paradigmatic for all the Church's activity" (ibid., 15).

Just as the two disciples of Emmaus told the others what had taken place along the way (cf. Lk 24:35), so too our proclamation will be a joyful telling of Christ the Lord, his life, his passion, his death and resurrection, and the wonders that his love has accomplished in our lives.

So let us set out once more, illumined by our encounter with the risen Lord and prompted by his Spirit. Let us set out again with burning hearts, with our eyes open and our feet in motion. Let us set out to make other hearts burn with the word of God, to open the eyes of others to Jesus in the Eucharist, and to invite everyone to walk together on the path of peace and salvation that God, in Christ, has bestowed upon all humanity.

Our Lady of the Way, Mother of Christ's missionary disciples and Queen of Missions, pray for us!

TRAVELING CHALICE

Today the Traveling Chalice will be received by BELEN SANDAN FAMILY at the 10:30am Mass. They will be praying for vocations this week and present to LUCY SOLIS FAMILY next Sunday at the 10:30AM Mass. With these families, let us continue to pray for priestly & religious vocations in our parish!

Is Today's Mass for Your Loved One?

Please let the ushers know when you are attending a Mass that you requested for a loved one or for a special intention. The ushers will instruct you to bring the gifts up to the Altar.

As announced last school year, we have finally adopted God's Park for grades 1 to 3 and OMG WooF (Wonders of our Faith) for grades 4 to 8 supplement the religious education program. So, our CCD program has now the complete digital supplements. We expect a great improvement in the students' participation and instruction. God's Park & OMG-WooF are catechetical gamified programs that is solidly Catholic, kid-friendly, and engagingly fun.

IT'S BACK!!!

Every Sunday at 10:30am Mass, when there are CCD classes, grades 4 & below (or ages 10 & below) are encouraged to participate in the Children's Liturgy of the Word whether they are in the CCD program or not.

GOD HAS NO PHONE. BUT I TALK TO HIM. HE HAS NO FACEBOOK. BUT HE IS STILL MY FRIEND. HE DOES NOT HAVE TWITTER; BUT, I STILL FOLLOW HIM. EVEN IF HE MAY HAVE A PHONE AND MAY BE CALLING ME, BUT NOT ON MY PHONE, ESPECIALLY WHEN I AM IN THE CHURCH.

ATTENTION
EXTRAORDINARY MINISTERS OF HOLY COMMUNION

As announced last month, there will be a review and practice of all current Eucharistic Ministers, especially now that communion of both species are back. This will be on OCTOBER 28, SATURDAY, at 6:30 PM (or after the 5:30PM Mass). We ask all EM's to please avail on this practicum.

WE NEED CHOIR MEMBERS

St. Anthony's Choir is forming and making a comeback! Under Karen Notare's professional direction the choir will have excellent training and our church will once again be praising and glorifying the Lord together with beautiful songs and music.

Please contact Karen or the Parish Office for more information about the Choir!!
