Pilgrims Prepare For World Youth Day August 1—August 6 Lisbon, Portugal

Earlier this summer, Cardinal Joseph W. Tobin gave a special blessing to more than 40 young men and women who will travel to Lisbon, Portugal for World Youth Day in August as representatives from the Archdiocese of Newark. Along the way, the pilgrims will stop at famous pilgrimage sites including Fatima, Portugal, where the apparition of Our Lady of Fatima appeared to three shepherd children in 1917; Santiago de Compostela in Spain, the alleged burial site of the Biblical apostle St. James; and the Sanctuary of Bom Jesus do Monte in Braga in Portugal. They also will spend time with Pope Francis.

The pilgrims, who total 43 in number and come from parishes across Union, Hudson, Essex, and Bergen counties, have been eagerly preparing for their journey with monthly meetings, prayer, and faith formation.

Father Kevin Kilgore, the pastor of St. Pius X Church in Old Tappan, is leading the pilgrimage along with Ricardo Casimiro, the Campus Minister at Montclair State University.

The pilgrims have been attending monthly meetings at St. Pius, which have included social activities such as a barbeque and a formal dinner, as well as talks on catechism, faith sharing, a lecture on Our Lady of Fatima, and a visit from the Pilgrim Statue of Our Lady of Fatima during its archdiocesan tour April 28 through June 10.

"I received my vocation to the priesthood while I was at World Youth Day 12 years ago," Father Kilgore said. Now, he sees leading this pilgrimage as "paying forward" for the gift of discernment he received during his previous pilgrimage.

We believe that God is doing something in each of [the pilgrims'] lives," he said. "There is an invitation from the Holy Spirit, and these are the ones who have accepted the Holy Spirit into their lives. World Youth Day is a kind of doorway... and they will form each other and grow together."

Several of the pilgrims who spoke to Jersey Catholic said they are hoping that the experience will inspire a new fervor for their faith and bring them closer in relationship to God.

Kean University student Christopher Tamay, 21, said that he is hoping the experience will help him discern God's plan for his life. "Spiritually and mentally, I want God to help me," Tamay said.

He is currently a volunteer youth leader at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church in Orange and said that he has been praying in preparation for the August pilgrimage but seeks a deeper prayerful life. He hopes the pilgrimage and the experience of meeting other pilgrims from across the world will help him "to find a better understanding of my life path and get closer to God."

Recent Montclair State University graduate Dominic Pereira, 22, said that he hopes the pilgrimage will help him return to his faith.

"Towards the end of my senior year of college, my faith journey started to slow down a bit," he said. Previously, Pereira was involved with campus ministry at his alma mater and even served as president of the university's Newman Catholic Club. "I became extremely busy with trying to graduate and get a job right out of college... my faith took a bit of a back seat during that time."

When he heard about the World Youth Day pilgrimage from Montclair State's campus minister Ricardo Casimiro, he thought it would be the perfect opportunity to reignite his passion for his faith.

We continue the research of our beautiful stained glass windows. In all there are 16 windows. Five on each side of the nave, 2 above the confessional, 2 above the gallery of saints, 1 in the vestibule and 1 leading to the choir loft. The names of donors have been memorialized in the windows. Please contact the Parish Office if you have any information about the donor families. The Historical Ministry is preparing a new and up-to-date version of the History of our Church.

Thank you for any information you have to offer.
