The Keys of the Kingdom

The Catechism of the Catholic Church Tells Us About
Today's Gospel

551 From the beginning of His public life Jesus chose certain men, twelve in number, to be with Him and to participate in His mission. (Mk 3:13-19) He gives the Twelve a share in His authority and “sent them out to preach the kingdom of God and to heal.” (Lk 9:2) They remain associated for ever with Christ’s kingdom, for through them He directs the Church: “As my Father appointed a kingdom for me, so do I appoint for you that you may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.” (Lk 22:29-30)

552 Simon Peter holds the first place in the college of the Twelve, (Cf. Mk 3:16; 9:2; Lk 24:34; 1 Cor 15:5) Jesus entrusted a unique mission to him. Through a revelation from the Father, Peter had confessed: “You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.” Our Lord then declared to him: “You are Peter, and on this rock I will build my Church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it.” (Mt 16:18) Christ, the living stone,” (1 Pet 2:4) thus assures His Church, built on Peter, of victory over the powers of death. Because of the faith he confessed Peter will remain the unshakeable rock of the Church. His mission will be to keep this faith from every lapse and to strengthen his brothers in it. (Cf. Lk 22:32)

553 Jesus entrusted a specific authority in Peter: “I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.” (Mt 16:19) The “power of the keys” designates authority to govern the house of God, which is the Church, Jesus, the Good Shepherd, confirmed this mandate after His resurrection: “Feed My sheep.” (Jn 21:15-17; cf. 10:11) The power to “bind and loose” connotes the authority to absolve sins, to pronounce doctrinal judgments, and to make disciplinary decisions in the Church. Jesus entrusted this authority to the Church through the ministry of the apostles (Cf. Mt 18:18) and in particular through the ministry of Peter, the only one to whom He specifically entrusted the keys of the kingdom.

Ocean Air, Satty Hair

Our Multi-Cultural Ministry is planning a day trip to Atlantic City on Saturday, September 9. You will be able to enjoy the day on the Beach or Boardwalk and try your luck in the Casino with $10 free slot play.

Check the flyers in church and don't miss out. Call Gilbert 201.889.8767 for your tickets. Only a few left.

There's a rumor going round! Could it be TRUE???

St. Anthony's Choir is forming and making a comeback! Under Karen Notare's professional and seasoned direction the choir will have excellent training and our church will once again be praising and glorifying the Lord together with beautiful songs and music.

Stay tuned for more information next week.....

Have you thought about serving the Lord as a Eucharistic Minister? Experience the joy and fulfillment here at St. Anthony of Padua.

Beginning in September of 2023, our Music Minister, Karen Notare will be offering private voice and beginning piano instruction on Saturdays in Ferraro Hall. In addition to her music ministry here at St. Anthony's Church, Karen is an internationally recognized and award-winning opera/classical singer and highly seasoned licensed NJ music educator. She has been a member of the faculty of the musical theater school at the Tony award-winning Paper Mill Playhouse in Millburn for thirteen years and counting. Karen provides individual training in every style of music for students of all ages. If you are interested in lessons, please contact Karen at: karennotare@aol.com or 908-745-1344.

URGENT!!! VOLUNTEERS STILL NEEDED

ATTENTION!

The Bible tells us Jesus said "Give and it shall be given unto you..." Sometimes we may feel we haven't enough money for the necessary things — how can we give? One way may be to give of your time. Consider volunteering at Bingo on Saturdays — Bingo is a big help to our operating expenses and in these hard times even more so.

Call the Parish Office to sign up or talk to a Bingo volunteer.

NEXT SUNDAY'S 2ND COLLECTION

Next weekend, September 2 & 3, the ushers will come around for the second collection. This collection will be for the Monthly Assessment. If you do not have your envelopes, kindly put in your allotted contribution for this purpose.

Each month we publish our Financial Report and as you can see we continue to have a deficit. Hopefully this new system will help us achieve a balanced book.

Thank you for your continued sacrificial support as we struggle to keep our Parish alive and thriving financially.

CONCERT FOR A CAUSE

Our Concert for a Cause was a huge success and we are thankful and full of gratitude for the Singing Priests for giving a beautiful and uplifting performance as well as all who attended and gave so generously. We were able to collect

*Ticket Sales of $7,155 and Donations of $3,927.

*Special needs expenses will be deducted from the gross.
