19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 12:32-48

Jesus' instructions on how to be ready for the coming judgment continue in the stories and sayings found in today's Gospel. We are not to be like the greedy rich man in last Sunday's Gospel who planned to store his great harvest in barns rather than share it. We are, rather, to share our wealth with those in need. The antidote for the anxiety brought on by the coming judgment is to relinquish our possessions and provide for the needs of others. Our treasure will be in heaven where it will not wear out or be destroyed.

The other major way to be ready for the coming judgment is to be watchful. In Luke's Gospel, Jesus tells a parable about watchfulness to begin making this point. We must be like servants waiting for the master's return from a wedding banquet, which, even now, can last for a few days in the Middle East. We must be watchful so that even if the master comes after midnight, we will be ready for him. This is what the coming of the Son of Man will be like.

Peter asks if this parable is meant for the apostles or for the large crowd that has gathered to listen to Jesus. Without answering Peter's question, Jesus responds with another parable about servants awaiting the return of their master. It begins with a question: "Who, then, is the faithful and prudent steward whom the master will put in charge of his servants to distribute the food allowance at the proper time?" This parable adds to the theme of watchfulness; it explains how to wait and reminds us of the reward for the faithful follower at the heavenly banquet after the judgment. If it is addressed to the apostles, then it could also be addressed to leadership in the early Church. Either way, the parable reminds us that we should be found doing our jobs when the master arrives. If we are doing our jobs, our reward will be great. But if we relax, neglect our duties, and begin to act like the greedy rich man—eating, drinking, and making merry—we will not have a place in the kingdom. Watchfulness means living in such a consistently moral and obedient way that we are always ready to give an account to God of how we have lived.

ST. ANTHONY'S STAINED GLASS WINDOWS PROJECT

We began our research project a couple of years ago about our beautiful stained glass windows. In all there are 16 windows. Five on each side of the nave, 2 above the confessional, 2 above the gallery of saints, 1 in the vestibule and 1 leading to the choir loft. The names of donors or their loved ones are memorialized in the windows.

This project, unfortunately, has been on hold for quite a while due to unforeseen circumstances. The Historical Committee will resume its research this fall. If you are interested in getting involved it would be a great help. Please call Leonora at 973.289.6013 or call the Parish Office for more information and an update on our next meeting. Thank you and God bless you.

Theology Class Starting This September!

As the new school year begins, so will a new opportunity to deepen our knowledge of the Catholic faith. From September 2025 to May 2026, our parish will offer weekly theology classes using the Catechism of the Catholic Church, the documents of the Second Vatican Council, and of course, the Holy Bible.

This course is designed to be a refresher study in the four pillars of the Catholic Catechism. The material will be presented in textual form and reinforced through the Socratic Method. The goal of the course is to deepen personal faith and Foster a Deeper Relationship with the Divine through the exploration of Catholic Doctrinal Faith.

We invite all—parishioners and non-parishioners—to enroll and grow in understanding and love of our faith. The first class will be on September 11 (Thursday), 2025 at the Little House, from 7pm to 8pm. Please register by the end of August 2025. Call the Parish Office for registration.

Our Annual CCD Tricky Tray

Sunday, October 19, 2025

In order to make this event a huge success, we are counting on our parishioners to help in any way possible.

The best way will be to donate any baskets and/or prizes that can be offered, such as, gifts or gift cards.

This fundraiser is going to be one of our, if not THE, best fundraisers we will offer this year. So, please remember to participate in any way you are able.

If you cannot attend, please offer your help by donating a themed basket or even an empty basket. Let's make this one better than ever!
