Santiago de Compostela. Young people challenged by the “fraternity revolution” and summoned to World Youth Day (WYD)— Lisbon 2023

Cardinal António Marto presided this Sunday at the closing mass of the European Youth Pilgrimage (PEJ) 2022, in Santiago de Compostela, and challenged young people to a “revolution of fraternity”.

“A revolution without weapons, without deaths or injuries, a revolution that starts from fraternal love and encompasses the culture of mutual care and the culture of encounter that builds bridges, breaks down walls of division and narrows distances between people, cultures and peoples”, he said. D. António Marto at Monte del Gozo, in Santiago de Compostela.

The European Youth Pilgrimage took place in Santiago de Compostela as part of the Holy Compostela Year and brought together around 12,000 young people from various European countries, namely Portugal.

Pope Francis’ special envoy to PEJ 2022 said in the closing homily that the youth meeting in Santiago is a “beautiful example” of fraternity.

“You have given a beautiful example of fraternity in the streets of Santiago”, said the bishop emeritus of the Diocese of Leiria-Fátima.

D. António Marto mentioned the example of Carlos de Foucauld and the Pope, namely in the encyclical “Fratelli Tutti”, where he proposes that the virtue of kindness be cultivated, which “creates fraternity, social friendship, solidarity”.

The Pope’s envoy to PEJ 2022 said that Christians cannot forget that “without the music of the Gospel” they lose “the joy that springs from compassion, the tenderness that is born of trust, the capacity for reconciliation that finds its source in the fact of knowing always forgiven and sent”

“It is very sad to see a Christian, especially if he is young, without joy”, said Bishop António Marto.

The bishop emeritus of Leiria-Fátima asked the young people present to commit themselves to building “a truer world”, where “nothing is left behind or left out, forgotten, abandoned” and where “peace prevails over war, where human life is absolutely respected, from conception to death, where the common home is truly a harmonious place for all”.

At the end of the celebration, D. António Marto greeted the groups of young people present and said goodbye “to Lisbon, at the World Youth Day, next year”.

When thanking the young people present and the envoy of Pope Francis, the Archbishop of Santiago de Compostela, Mgr Julián Barrio, reminded all the young people participating in the PEJ 2022 of the World Youth Day, in 2023, to live the “closeness” of the Pope Francis.

“With Santiago, apostle and pilgrim, we are summoned for the coming year to live closeness to the Apostle Peter, in his successor Francis, at the World Youth Day in Lisbon”, said the Archbishop of Santiago de Compostela.

The WYD Cross and the Marian Icon that accompanies it, symbols of the World Youth Day, were, these days, in Santiago de Compostela, in a special stage of the current pilgrimage through the Portuguese dioceses, towards the international meeting in Lisbon (1 to 6 August 2023).

The European Youth Pilgrimage, which takes place since Wednesday, includes moments of prayer, concerts, thematic meetings and cultural proposals, throughout the city of Santiago.

According to the organization, 55 bishops from Spain, Italy and Portugal, 370 priests and 400 consecrated persons are also present.

The Portuguese delegation, with around 250 participants, arrived from eight dioceses and three youth movements.

The European Pilgrimage takes place in the context of Xacobeo, the Holy Year, which was extended until the end of 2022, by Pope Francis, because of the Covid-19 pandemic.

A Kernel of History

(Part 42)

1995 brought many events including a special reunion reception with Father Thomas A. Gillick. Fr. Gillick had served St. Anthony's from 1937 to 1956 except for 4 years during World War II. He was beloved by many parishioners whom he had created a bond with during their youth. He made a deep impression on their faith and instilled in them a love for the Lord. Fr. Dante celebrated Mass on September 6th with a reception and reunion in the lower church afterward. The choir members from the 40's sang at Mass and approximately 200 people attended. That year was a great year for our Archdiocese, as Pope John Paul II celebrated Mass at Sacred Heart Cathedral on October 4 and proclaimed it as a Cathedral Basilica. President Bill Clinton was in attendance as well. Ten members of St. Anthony's Choir were selected to join a special choir made up of members from all parishes throughout the archdiocese. They sang the liturgy with the Holy Father on October 5th at the Meadowlands Arena with the Synod Choir despite 6 hours of unrelenting rain. At the conclusion of Mass, and amidst the chaotic crowd running for cover, national television interviewed Liz Spano and Flora Ferraro (Fr. Joe's mother), members of the choir, who broke out singing "Singing in the Rain".

More to come in future bulletins.
